House 2653 Saint-Jeannet

Located in the charming village of Saint Jeannet, this beautiful villa offers a rare living environment that is both peaceful and close to the village amenities, all within walking distance. Bathed in light, the house boasts a stunning panoramic view of the sea, La Gaude, and the village of Saint Jeannet. Its privileged setting will captivate nature lovers and those seeking authenticity. The house features three bedrooms, a bathroom, a separate toilet, and a kitchen that can easily be converted into an open-plan kitchen. The bright and welcoming living room opens directly onto the terrace and the beautiful unobstructed view, providing a lovely indoor-outdoor living space. The property offers great potential for customization and requires some refreshing work, allowing each owner to tailor it to their tastes. The charming terraces, the pool, and the well-maintained outdoor areas invite relaxation and socializing. A garage completes this quality property with strong potential, ideal as a primary or secondary residence. A real gem—don't miss the chance to discover it!
